Section 3: Responsibilities of the Club Secretary

As club secretary, your primary responsibilities will include…

- Attending all club and board meetings
- Organizing club meetings
- Keeping club records
- Receiving and responding to club correspondence
- Completing and filing all club reports with LCI
- Cooperating as an active member of the district governor’s advisory committee of the zone

Attending all club and board meetings

Notes:

Organizing club meetings

What are the secretary’s responsibilities:

- Before the club meeting?
During the club meeting?

After the club meeting?

To prepare for board meetings, a secretary should:

- At the request of the president, coordinate the topics to be covered and create agenda
- Notify board members and individual committee chairpersons of the time and location of the meeting
- Be ready to record the minutes of the meeting in detail to provide a business history of the club
- These responsibilities will vary from club to club; therefore it is recommended that the secretary establish ground rules with the president to avoid confusion at board meetings
Recording meeting minutes

Notes:

The minutes should only record what the club does, and not what members say. Therefore:

• Debate is considered informal and not recorded

• Generally the name of the member making a motion is recorded; the one who seconds is optional. Be sure to record that motion carried or lost.

• When a vote is taken by ballot, the number on each side should be recorded

• When a roll call vote is taken, a list of names voting on each side should be recorded

When recording and reporting the minutes, proper terminology is important.

• Motions that are successfully voted into policy are “carried, adopted, or sustained.” Avoid using “passed.”

• Motions that are not carried are “lost or defeated”. Avoid using “failed.”

• Reports that are endorsed by the club are “adopted or accepted.” Avoid using “received,” which simply means read to the assembly.
Taking Attendance:

- The secretary must keep an accurate log of attendance for the year
- Attendance may be taken by calling out the list of member's names, quietly recording names in a log, or having members check in on an attendance sheet
- A quorum is the minimum number of members required at a meeting for the transaction of business. Usually a quorum is the majority of members. The secretary must announce whether or not a quorum exists.
- There should be a policy in place for members to make up missed meetings if necessary
