Course	Description
Introduction to Leadership	This course defines leadership and shows varied leadership styles and how they can be used. You will assess your leadership style. Five practices of exemplary world leaders are explained and applied. Through matching activities and quizzes, you can check your learning and use it in Lions situations. You will create a personal leadership development plan.
Writing Your Personal Mission Statement	Prepare to embark on a journey of self-discovery! Through a series of introspective activities, you will craft your personal mission statement and learn how to integrate it into your everyday life. You'll also be provided with a model for putting "first things first" and preventing less important tasks from consuming the majority of your time.
Decision Making	Do you want to improve your decision making? This course presents the steps of decision-making, a range of decision making styles, and ways to increase group acceptance. In addition, several techniques are illustrated that you can use in making your decision, such as Pareto rule, force field analysis, decision tree, stepladder technique, and grid analysis comparison.
Delegation	This course illustrates the definition of delegation and the benefits of delegation. After assessing your level of delegation, the steps of successful delegation are presented as well as the challenges. Course activities and practical worksheets will help you increase your use of delegation.
Effective Teams	This course will help you understand the characteristics of effective teams, the stages of team development, how leaders can support teams, and how to use good decision-making methods. You'll find assessment tools to evaluate your team, tips for team leaders, and interesting activities to motivate and energize your Lions teams.
Goal Setting	Many people do not achieve their goals because they do not establish effective goals. In this course, you will learn how to do just that. You will complete the process of defining goals, writing an action plan, and then managing your goals for the best results. By the end of the course you will be on the path to achievement.

Managing Change	You will learn how to become a change leader by taking this course. Through activities, you will recognize the roles in the change implementation process and the way different people react to change and adopt change. You will use checklists to assess resistance and develop a plan to implement a change that is needed.
Valuing Member Diversity	To address the changing face of volunteerism, this course examines the concept of diversity as it applies to our association. It emphasizes how diversity benefits Lions clubs, explores how to recruit and retain diverse members, and challenges the learner to support a culture of pluralism.
Member Motivation	In this course, Professor Kazantis introduces you to theories of human motivation. Lion Michael explains how these theories relate to examples of meeting member needs and motivating club members. You will be challenged to use this information in your personal plan to motivate members.
Public Relations	This course defines public relations and presents the benefits for Lions clubs. You'll learn what makes an event newsworthy and how to communicate key messages about Lions clubs. You will create an elevator speech and a public relations plan. You will discover the numerous public relations resources that you can use.
Servant Leadership	Servant Leadership is an effective leadership philosophy based on one's desire to serve others. A Servant Leader looks to the needs of the people and asks himself how he can help them to solve problems and to develop new personal skills. Embark on a journey of self-discovery as you learn about the practice of Servant Leadership through real life scenarios and activities. This course simulates going on a journey driving on a highway, taking exits and stopping occasionally at rest stops for reflection as you progress through the course.
Team Motivation	By building on each team member's personal motivation, a team leader can influence the level of motivation of a team. Learn about the 50/50 rule and five strategies a leader can utilize to motivate a team which will increase the level of team results by up to 37%. As the five motivation strategies are presented, you will also see a Lions project team in action.
