Club First Vice President

Prepare to Lead as Club First Vice President; Prepare to Succeed as Club President

As the club vice president, your tasks are two-fold. One of your top priorities is to stand ready to fulfill the duties of the club president if the president is unable to do so for any reason. Most likely, you will also have other duties as assigned by the president, and may be asked to lead one or more committees during the year.

In addition to those duties, you should dedicate time to prepare to serve as club president. It is important to understand the role of club president and all of its responsibilities well before you begin to serve.

Self-study or Facilitated Training for Club President

If you have not served as a club vice president or president, it is good to spend some time in the self-study online training module.

Follow the online Club President Module PowerPoint and complete the Club President Workbook to gain an overview of the club president position including:

- Your responsibilities as club president.
- The structure of the club board and individual officers’ duties.
- Appointing chairpersons.
- Planning and conducting meetings.
- Preparing to actively participate in zone meetings (District Governor’s Advisory Committee).
Become Familiar with Your Club Constitution and By-Laws

Your club constitution and by-laws provides the basic structure and policies to guide your club’s operations and to meet the obligations of a club chartered with the International Association of Lions Clubs. It also serves as your club’s main reference document if there are questions about appropriate procedures to conduct club business.

Standard Club Constitution and By-Laws - This template document serves as the basis for a club to create its own governing document in accordance with the International Constitution and By-Laws. If your club does not have its own, use this standard document.

The Club Board of Directors

To be a successful club president, you will need to empower your leadership team - the club board of directors. Each board member fills a specific leadership role designed to ensure the successful operation of your club in providing needed service to the community. By understanding the roles and responsibilities of each member of the club board, you can help ensure that the skills of the member match the job you are asking them to do. It also ensures that no one officer is burdened beyond their willingness and capability to succeed.

Review the job descriptions for these positions to match the skills and willingness of potential leaders to the appropriate role. Doing so will increase the likelihood that serving as a leader of the club will be a positive experience for each member on your team.

This includes the administration of membership dues invoicing and collection, making deposits and recording expense receipts. The Transition to Club President

• Dispute Resolution Guidelines - The guidelines are intended to assist Lions members, clubs and districts (single, sub- and multiple) in following the Club, District and Multiple District Dispute Resolution Procedures when conflicts cannot be resolved through informal processes.
