

BENEDICT ANCAR
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Benedict Ancar, from Bucharest, Romania, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 95th International Convention, held in Busan, Korea, June 22 through 26, 2012.

Past Director Ancar is an assistant professor and the head of an obstetrics and gynecology department.

A member of the Bucharest Curtea Veche Lions Club and a Lion since 1997, he has held many offices within the association, including charter president, zone chairperson and district governor. He also served as the president of the Europa Forum.

In recognition of his service to the association, he has received numerous awards including the Membership Key Award, two Extension Awards, three International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Past Director Ancar is active in numerous professional and community organizations, including the Romanian Society for Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Past Director Ancar is married to Milena, and has two sons.