

DURBAN L. ARDJO
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Durban L. Ardjo, of Bandung, Indonesia, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of the International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 73rd annual convention, held in St. Louis, Missouri, USA, on July 11-14, 1990.

Past Director Ardjo is a senior lecturer at the Bandung Institute of Technology and a founding partner and company president of P.T. Geoservices, Ltd.

A member of the Bandung Raya Lions Club since 1978 with 15 years perfect attendance, Past Director Ardjo has held many positions in the association, including club president, zone chairman and district governor. He has also served as chairman of the Indonesian Lions Foundation. He is currently chairman of the Indonesian SightFirst project to overcome the cataract blindness backlog in his country.

Past Director Ardjo has received many awards in recognition of his service to the association. Among these are the 100% Club President Award, a Key Member Award, two District Governor Extension Awards, an International President's Certificate of Appreciation Award, three International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor granted by the association to its members. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Ardjo and his wife, Irawati, have two children.