

MARSHALL W. COOPER
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Marshall W. Cooper, of Beaumont, Texas, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 76th International Convention, held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA, July 6-9, 1993.

Past Director Cooper retired after working with children and youth for 46 years.

A Lion since 1964 and a member of the Beaumont Founders Lions Club since 1987, Past Director Cooper has held many positions within the association, including club president, zone chairperson, deputy district governor and district governor. He is also actively involved with the Texas Lions Camp, Texas Lions Eyeglass Recycling Center and the Texas Lions Foundation.

Past Director Cooper has received numerous awards in recognition of his service to the association, including seven International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest award the association grants to its members. He is a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow and a member of the Texas Lions Hall of Fame.

Director Cooper and his wife, Wanda, have three children and four grandchildren.