

ROBERT J. COULTHARD
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Robert J. Coulthard, of Belair, South Australia, Australia, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 71st annual convention, held in Denver, Colorado, USA, June 29 - July 2, 1988.

Past Director Coulthard is a doctor in a general medical practice.

A member of the Marion Lions Club since 1963, Past Director Coulthard has held many offices within the association including club president, district governor and council chairman. He has also served as a trustee or board member for several Australian Lions Foundations.

For his contributions to the association, Past Director Coulthard has received an Extension Award, three Certificate of Appreciation Awards, six International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association gives to its members.

In addition to his Lions awards, Past Director Coulthard has been presented with a Certificate of Appreciation from the Australian National Association for the Prevention of Blindness for his outstanding contribution to blindness prevention. In 1998, Past Director Coulthard was made a Member of the Order of Australia for services to blindness prevention, both within Australia and internationally.

Past Director Coulthard and his wife, Jill, have two sons and a daughter.