

ANDRE DANET
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Andre Danet, of Rouen, France, served a second two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs following his election at the association's 58th International Convention held in Dallas, Texas, USA, 1975.

A retired dental surgeon, Past Director Danet has been a member of the Rouen Doyen Lions Club since 1951. He has served in many offices within the association and was editor-in-chief of an official Lions publication. Past Director Danet also received a number of awards in recognition of his outstanding service to the association, including the International President's Award.

Past Director Danet is active in civic, cultural and governmental affairs, and is serving as Conseiller General of the Department and Vice-President of the Conseil General. Past Director Danet served his country during World War II as a volunteer.

Avidly interested in history and politics, one of Past Director Danet's favorite leisure time activities is reading. He and his wife, Maito, have three children, Sylvie, Chantal and Oliver.
