

JOHN E. HOYLE
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

John E. Hoyle, of New Bedford, Massachusetts, USA, served a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs after his election at the 61st annual convention, held in Tokyo, Japan in June 1978.

Lion Hoyle has served as a 100% district governor and multiple district council chairman during his many years as a member of the association. He has received numerous awards for his service on behalf of the association, including two Extension Awards, a Master Key Award, six International President's Awards, the Melvin Jones Fellow Award and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Lion. In addition, Past Director Hoyle has a perfect attendance record of 33 years. He is a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lion activities, Past Director Hoyle is a member of the Specialty Advertising Association speakers bureau, New Bedford Area Chamber of Commerce and the Specialty Advertising Association of New England. He has received three awards for the outstanding use of specialty advertising and was nominated Outstanding Young Man of the Year by the Massachusetts Jaycees in 1979.

Past Director Hoyle and his wife, Nativa, have three children and four grandchildren.