

TAE-YOUNG KIM
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Tae-Young Kim, from Incheon, Korea, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of Lions Clubs International at the association's 95th International Convention, held in Busan, Korea, June 22 through 26, 2012.

Past Director Kim is the CEO of TCMC Construction Management Company. He is an architect and consultant engineer with a doctorate degree in architectural engineering.

A member of the Incheon Wolmi Lions Club since 1989, he has held many offices within the association, club president, region chairperson, district governor and multiple district Lions Quest chairperson.

In recognition of his service to the association, he has received numerous awards including two International President's Awards, an International Leadership Award, several Presidential Certificates of Appreciation, the Humanitarian Partner Bronze - Diamond Award and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor the association bestows upon its members. He is also a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lions activities, Past Director Kim is active in numerous professional and community organizations, including serving as vice chairperson of the Construction Management Association of Korea and the Ministry of Justice's Crime Prevention Unit in Incheon. He is also the director of the Saeul Foundation of Culture and an adjunct professor at the University of Incheon Graduate School. Director Kim is also the recipient of the Prime Minister Award and numerous awards from ministers and mayors.

Past Director Kim and his wife, Sea-Hee Oh, have two sons.