

JEROME L. RADLINGER
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

Jerome "Jerry" L. Radlinger, of Dorchester, Wisconsin, USA, was elected to serve as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 54th International Convention, held in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA, June 22-25, 1971.

Past Director Radlinger served for two years on the International Board of Directors, the association's principal decision-making body, devoting considerable time to the business affairs of Lions Clubs International.

Past Director Radlinger has been a member of the Dorchester Lions Club since 1956. While serving his term as district governor, he chartered seven new clubs. He holds numerous awards, including three Extension Awards and nine International President's Awards. He is a Melvin Jones Fellow and is a Life Member of the Dorchester Lions Club.

Lion Radlinger holds officership in several corporations. He is a Navy veteran of World War II and holder of the Purple Heart. He is also a member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Marshfield Elks.

He and his wife, Betty Jane, have one daughter and have three grandchildren.