

WILLIAM C. RUSSELL
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

William C. "Bill" Russell, of Fairbanks, Alaska, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 68th International Convention, held in Dallas, Texas, USA, June 19-22, 1985.

Director Russell is retired. He previously worked in the general contracting business.

A Lion since 1967, Director Russell has recorded 22 years of perfect attendance and has served the association in many capacities. He has held all association offices at the club and district levels, as well as serving as a 100% district governor and chairman of the council of governors. Director Russell was also involved in his district eye bank board for 10 years.

In addition to his association activities, Director Russell is active in farming organizations.

Director Russell has two children and five grandchildren.