

WILLIAM L. SCHOOLER
PAST INTERNATIONAL DIRECTOR

William L. Schooler, of Munster, Indiana, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 64th International Convention, held in Phoenix, Arizona, USA, June 1981.

Past Director Schooler is an educator.

A Lion since 1956, Past Director Schooler has served the association in many capacities, including terms as district governor, cabinet secretary-treasurer and zone chairman. He also served as an appointee to the International Board of Directors in 1983-84. Past Director Schooler's contributions have been recognized with the 100% District Governor Award, three International President's Awards and the Ambassador of Good Will Award, the highest honor granted to a member by the association. He is also a Melvin Jones Fellow.

Past Director Schooler is well known for his community service. Involved in the American Cancer Society's Cancer Crusade, the Handicapped Olympics and the United Way, he is also active in a number of professional education associations. In addition, Past Director Schooler is a recipient of the state of Indiana's most prestigious award, Sagamore of the Wabash.

Past Director Schooler and his wife, Jean, have two sons.